

I believe K-Love is one of the few wholesome, positive and encouraging signals we receive on the airways. They serve me and many of my friends & family in the local community. Placing them with a LPFM would be a disservice to many who have come to rely on the uplifting messages to get through the day.